2.4 Malpractice and maladministration handling

Malpractice and maladministration which occurs in the delivery of 1st4sport and ECB awarded qualifications is effectively handled in accordance with the 1st4sport Incident Management Process. Incident reports are derived from a number of mechanisms and not solely resultant of malpractice or maladministration reporting. Any reported incident may infer alleged malpractice or maladministration in the first instance and then may be proven or not proven as a result of a fact find or investigation. Alternatively, any reported incident may prove that malpractice or maladministration did occur and will lead to implementation of corrective actions.

Where any malpractice or maladministration is confirmed in the development, delivery or award of any qualifications, course or workshop, 1st4sport, supported by the ECB promptly take all reasonable steps to prevent reoccurrence and take appropriate action against those responsible which is proportionate to the gravity and scope of the occurrence. Cooperation of third parties in taking such action may be sought.

Where there is any cause to believe that an occurrence of malpractice, maladministration, or any connected occurrence may affect another recognised centre in the delivery of a qualification we inform that recognised centre immediately. Furthermore, where such an occurrence may affect another awarding organisation, notifications are sent to the awarding organisation, the ECB and the regulators.
